PUBLIC ANNOUNCEMENT FOR CANDIDATE SELECTION

RECTOR'S DECREE n. 252/2018

DEADLINE FOR ONLINE APPLICATION: AUGUST 30, 2018 at 1:00 PM

Art. 1 – Announcement

Public competition for admission to PhD programs, with administrative seat at the University of Basilicata, for the XXXIV cycle – academic year 2018-2019, have been announced as specified in Annex 1.

Below the PhD programs:

Departement/School	PhD program	Number of total available positions	Positions with scholarship
Department of Sciences	Applied Biology and Environmental Safeguard	7	6
Department of European and Mediterranean Cultures: Architecture, Environment, Cultural Heritage	Cities and Landscapes: Architecture, Archaeology, Cultural Heritage, History and Resources	11	9
School of Engineering	Engineering for Innovation and Sustainable Development	11	9
School of Agriculture, Forest, Food and Environmental Sciences	Agricultural, Forest and Food Sciences	8	7
Department of Human Sciences	History, Culture and Knowledge of Mediterranean Europe from antiquity to contemporary	7	5

Procedures for selection of candidates, any curriculum, the number of available positions, the number of scholarships with an indication of funding source, the number of available positions (with or without scholarship) reserved to foreign candidates (if prescribed by the PhD program), the schedule of tests and the place where the examination will take place, have been indicated, for each PhD program in the corresponding form (see Annex 1).

The available positions with scholarship will be increased as a result of participation of the University at the notice MIUR issued with D.D. May 4, 2018, n. 1090 aimed at the promotion of doctoral training initiatives characterized by strong industrial interest and the involvement of companies, through the funding of scholarships for doctoral degrees, as part of the PON RI 2014-2020, Asse prioritario I "Investimenti in Capitale Umano", Azione I.1. "Dottorati innovativi con caratterizzazione industriale".

Under Article 9, paragraph 1, of the aforementioned notice "Recipients of additional scholarships, of which the applications for funding submitted by the universities out of the present decree, are graduates usefully classified in the ranking for admission to PhD program for 2018/2019 academic year, XXXIV cycle.

The available scholarships will be increased as a result of government funding or as a result of loans obtained by government agencies or private organizations (also related to specific topics) and will be assigned to the candidates placed on the list without scholarship, they will be enrolled in the manner and within the time limits specified in this notice.

The courses shall officially begin on November 2, 2018.

Admission to the course involves an exclusive and full-time commitment.

Art. 2 – Admission requirements

Those who are in possession of one of the following qualifications, without any limitation of age, sex, citizenship may apply for the competition:

- a. University degree obtained under the previous educational systems (ex ante D.M. 509/99, whose legal course has at least a four-year term);
- b. Laurea specialistica/magistrale (D.M. 509/99 and D.M. 270/2004);
- c. Equivalent academic qualification obtained abroad (see art. 3).

Those who have only the three-year degree cannot apply.

The participation to competitive examination is also open to those who will obtain their Master Degree by and no later than October 31, 2018. In this case, conditional admission shall be granted. The Administration will check these requirements at the October 31, 2018: failure to meet these requisites will result in the irrevocable loss of the right to enroll.

For candidates who completed their degree by 31 October, commissions, instead of graduation and degree grade thesis, consider the weighted average of the marks obtained in all the tests of the course of study that gives access to the competition, incurred to the date of submission of the application for admission.

Those who already completed a PhD program or are enrolled in another PhD program are not eligible for scholarships. Those who are enrolled in the same PhD program (previous doctoral cycle) without scholarships are not eligible to participate in the competition for the same PhD program in which are already enrolled.

Equal opportunities for men and women are guaranteed as provided for by law N. 125/1991 and art. 57 of Legislative Decree N. 165/2001.

The University may exclude, at any time, applicants who are lacking the requisite conditions.

Art. 3 - Foreign academic titles

Candidates with foreign academic title already recognized by the academic authorities, must enclose the declaration of equivalence to an Italian degree together with the documents referred to the PhD program selected (see art. 4.1). In the absence of such a declaration, the candidate must specifically request it in the application form. The Competition Commission of each PhD program shall decide on the suitability of a foreign academic qualification, solely for the purpose of admission to the doctoral chosen.

The candidates must attach relevant and mandatory paperwork in order to allow the assessment of their titles, including:

1. a self-certification according to Presidential Decree 445/2000 of academic qualification, with a list of exams, the scores and the legal duration of the course, if Italian and EU citizens;
2. certificate of the academic qualification, with a list of exams, the scores and the legal duration of the course, together with an Italian translation, if non-EU citizens. The translation must be signed under their own responsibility.

The lack of the above mentioned documents will result in the exclusion from the competition.

Candidates who are admitted to the PhD course, within sixty days from the date of registration, on pain of forfeiture, must submit the following documentation:

1. the titles translated and legalized by the competent Italian consular or diplomatic missions abroad;
2. the 'Dichiarazione di valore in loco of foreign academic titles, issued by the Italian diplomatic representation (Embassy or Consulate) in the country where the qualification was awarded, containing the following specifications:
 - a. legal duration of the qualification;
 - b. equivalence to give access to a PhD program in the country where it was awarded;
 - c. type of university that issued it (legally recognized under national law);
 - d. higher education system;
 - e. a complete list of exams;
 - f. if possible, the Diploma Supplement [¹] in the original or a certified copy (in Italian or English) provided by the same university that issued it.

(For more information, refer to the websites http://www.studiare-in-italia.it/studentistranieri/moduli/2017/Circolare2017_2018En.pdf and <http://www.cimea.it/en/servizi/procedure-di-riconoscimento-dei-titoli/procedure-di-riconoscimento-dei-titoli-overview.aspx>.

The foreign title evaluation will be published exclusively on the website <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca/bandi.html>.

It will not be given any written notice or phone call directly to the candidates.

Art. 4 – Application

Applications for admission to competitions and any required enclosures must be submitted following the online procedure available of the website <https://unibas.esse3.cineca.it>, by the final deadline of August 30, 2018, at 1:00 PM, when the competition closes (new users must register by selecting "Registrazione"; those who have already registered should select "Login" and proceed with the following steps: insert username and password, and then, in the "Segreteria Studenti", select "Test di ammissione" → "Iscrizione concorsi" → "Dottorato di ricerca"). Candidates failing to comply will not be considered.

Candidates interested in a PhD program must submit an admission application, with a request to take part in the relevant selection procedure.

Each application must refer to a single selection procedure and will require a payment of € 30.00, not refundable. Therefore, candidates wishing to apply to more than one selection procedure must submit a separate application and the € 30.00 fee for each selection procedure.

The payment can be made at any bank branch in Italy (including automatic teller machines, via telephone banking or Internet banking for those banks providing such services), using the special payment slip in MAV bank format printed out at the end of the admission application procedure.

The payment of € 30.00 must be made before August, 30 2018.

Foreign students are exempted from the payment of the € 30,00 fee.

If the PhD program provides the choice of the curriculum, applicants must indicate a specific curriculum.

¹ A Diploma Supplement is an additional document to the official qualification achieved at the end of a course attended at a university or institute of higher education. The Diploma Supplement provides a description of the nature, level, context, content and status of the studies carried out and completed by the student, according to a standard 8-section model developed by the European Commission, the European Council and UNESCO. It is issued by the university at which the qualification was achieved. For further information consult the site <http://ec.europa.eu/education/lielong-learning-policy/ds.en.htm>

If in Annex 1 are provided reserved positions, candidates, in filling out the application site, will have to make that choice, opting for one type of reserve, in the event that several types of reserved positions are provided. Make your selection, the candidate will participate in the competition only for the chosen category of reserved positions.

As specified by the Italian law (art. 20 of law N. 104, 5 February 1992) candidates with disabilities can request special aids and/or additional time for carrying out the competition.

Applications that are not following the guidelines indicated above will not be accepted, and the candidates will be automatically excluded from the selection.

The University accepts no responsibility for any mistake made by the candidate with regards to data provided and attachments. It is your responsibility to verify the correct conclusion of the application process, no claims will be accepted for any malfunctioning of the computer.

4.1 ACADEMIC QUALIFICATION CERTIFICATES, DOCUMENTS

Candidates with any academic qualification certificates, documents or publications considered useful for the purposes of the competition procedures must attach the following certificates, documents and publications, except in the cases in Annex 1/, for each PhD program:

- 1) a self-certification to prove to meet the requirements in accordance with articles 46 and 47 of the Presidential Decree 445/2000, using the form in Annex A, for candidates holding an Italian degree;
- 2) degree certificate indicating exams taken, or a description of the degree with a list of exams taken, "Dichiarazione di valore in loco" (see art. 3) together with a statement of truth of the certificates attached, in accordance with Articles 46 and 47 of the President's Decree 445/2000 using the form in Annex B, for candidates holding a foreign degree;
- 3) scanned copy of a valid identity card or passport;
- 4) curriculum vitae;
- 5) the summary of the thesis;
- 6) Research project, using the form in Annex C (if requested);
- 7) scientific publications;
- 8) Other titles (academic, professional, linguistic and documents considered useful for the purposes of evaluation- see Annex 1/ for each PhD program);
- 9) Video conference interview , using the form in Annex D.

All academic qualifications, documents and publications considered useful for the application procedure must be attached in .pdf or .rtf file form with a maximum size of 20 MB. Attachments larger than 20 MB must be divided into smaller files.

In accordance with the article 40 of President's Decree 445/2000, certificates regarding personal qualities, status and facts issued by the public administration can be only used for private purposes. Self-certification, under articles 46 and 47 of President's Decree 445/2000, can replace attested declarations for public administration or public services purposes.

Publications in languages other than Italian or English, or which do not include a summary in one of the abovementioned languages, must be produced in the original language and translated into Italian.

Certificates issued by the competent authorities of the foreign candidate's country of citizenship must comply with the provisions in force in the same country. Certificates in a language other than Italian, must also be translated and authenticated by the competent Italian diplomatic or consular authorities.

An Italian translation must be attached to all documents written in a language other than Italian and must be certified by a competent Italian diplomatic authority or an official translator.

Art. 5 - Selection Procedures

In order to check the candidate's suitability for scientific research, the examination is conducted through the assessment of titles, possibly supplemented by a written test or interview or both. The candidate may also be asked to present a research project to be attached to the application.

The modalities of the selection, for each PhD program, are indicated in details in Annex 1.

During the interviews, the Commission will examine the knowledge of at least one foreign language, according to the guidelines for each course, as specified in Annex 1 to the announcement.

The examination can also be carried out in a foreign language indicated for each PhD program.

For foreign candidates, assessment procedures can be made also electronically. Accordingly, candidates residing abroad can take their assessment by Videoconferencing (e.g., Skype or similar). In this case the applicant must fill in the appropriate form (Request Interview In Videoconference – Annex D) and attach it to the application form, along with a valid document of identity. The interview may be taken in one of the foreign languages as indicated, for each competition, in Annex 1.

The form must contain the name of the chosen platform (Skype or similar) and address of the user that will be used by the Commission for the video call. The candidate must be available personally available on the day indicated for the interview, according to the schedule provided by each PhD program (Annex 1) .

For identification purposes, each candidate is required to identify themselves before the interview begins, exhibiting the identity document already provided as a copy in the application.

Failure to communicate the personal e-mail address, the unavailability of the candidate on the examination day and time or failure to present a valid identification document, are grounds for exclusion from the selection process.

The University of Basilicata does not assume responsibilities for technical reasons preventing the proper interview.

The Commission can assign a maximum of 100 points to each candidate. Tab of each PhD program (see Annex 1) shows the points available for each test, the award criteria, the minimum score for admission to any subsequent test.

The list of candidates eligible to take any test subsequent to the valuation of their titles will be made public on the University website under the link <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca.html>.

The publication of those admitted to the examination, dates and locations of the examinations, has legal intents and purposes, and applicants must present themselves with a valid identity document, without prior notification, at the office, at the day and time indicated online.

Any change will be announced on the University website under the following link <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca.html>. Applicants are therefore required to check for any update to the Annex 1, also closely to the examination date.

Candidates not present on the examination date will be excluded from the competition, regardless the reason.

Art. 6 – Examination Committee

The committees responsible for the evaluation of candidates for each PhD program are appointed by the Rector, once designated by the PhD College among professors and researchers, also part of the College, specifically qualified in the relevant areas of science to which the PhD program refers. The Commission can be integrated with experts, from Italian public and private research entities, which found or contribute to the activities of the PhD program.

UFFICIO POST LAUREAM

If the PhD program is divided into more than two curricula, the number of experts may be increased up to the number of the same curricula.

Each commission will be published on the Internet at the following web link <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca.html>.

Finally the Commission shall draw up a special report containing detailed examination results, as well as an opinion on the interview performed by each candidate and the detailed list of points given, and the final ranking.

Where the PhD program provides for positions reserved to foreign candidates, they can be ranked in a separate list.

Art. 7 – Ranking and scholarship assignment

The candidates' ranking will be established in a decreasing order of the overall grades obtained as sum from all the evaluation stages (title, colloquium, others).

In the case of equal grade for more than a candidate, the youngest one (ex art. 3 L. 127/1997, amended by art. 2, para. 9 of Law 191/1998) will be first in the ranking.

The official ranking will be published as 'Decreto rettorale' on the University website <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca.html>.

In case an eligible candidate refuse the admission to the doctorate, his position will be available for the following candidate in the ranking order.

Candidates will be admitted to the PhD program following the ranking order and in a maximum number corresponding to the positions available for each PhD program.

The scholarships will be awarded to the candidates having higher ranking in the list. For each PhD program a limited number of grants is available.

If some grants of a specific curriculum are not assigned to any candidate, the Doctorate collegium can assign these scholarships to eligible candidates of a different curriculum.

If one candidate is ranked in more than one PhD program list, he/she must choose only one PhD program. The option must be done within eight days since publication of the ranking list and candidates' admission on the University website. The choice of the PhD program, carried out at the time of enrollment, is definitive and the candidate cannot change it in any way.

Art. 8 – Registration

The candidates admitted at each PhD program, within a maximum of 8 (eight) days from the date of publication of the lists on the University website under the link <http://portale.unibas.it/site/home/didattica/dottorati-di-ricerca.html>, will formalize the enrollment in the first year of the PhD program.

Those who have not regularized their enrollment before the above deadline, will automatically lose their position, which will be offered to the next candidate in the list.

In the event of vacancies, eligible candidates will be contacted by e-mail and will be invited to enrol, in accordance with the requirements indicated in the preceding article, within five (5) days from the time of receipt of the email. Failure to comply will result in loss of the right to admission.

The PhD students without scholarship are requested to pay only € 140.00 of regional taxes and € 16.00 of secretary duty as registration fee.

The students receiving a PhD scholarship are requested to pay the PhD registration fees according to the Table below:

Fixed registration fee	€ 360,00	payable at registration
Variable contribution	from € 200,00 to € 1.000,00	to be paid in one or two installments depending on ISEE
Regional tax for the right to university study	€ 140,00	to be paid Regione Basilicata at registration
Stamp duty paid virtually	€ 16,00	payable at registration

The variable contribution is calculated according to the economic circumstances of students, assessed on the basis of the Indicator of equivalent economic situation (ISEE), determined in the manner provided by D.P.C.M. December 5, 2013 , n. 159.

The variable contribution from the III ISEE band, is divided into two installments to be paid by March 31 and May 31.

[Foreign students are required to pay only the fixed registration fee and the fixed contribution, as well as the regional tax for the right to study and stamp duty paid virtually (€ 360,00 + € 140,00 + € 16,00).]

For further information concerning registration fees, tuition fees and waivers, see the Part IV of the "Regolamento in materia di contribuzione studentesca - academic year 2018/2019".

By registering the candidate accepts the admission conditions set out in this announcement and the Regulations of the doctoral courses of the University of Basilicata, issued by D.R. n. 238 of July 10, 2013.

Art. 9 – Scholarships

The scholarship, worth a gross annual total of € 15.343,28, is subject to tax deduction provided by the law.

The amount of the scholarship is increased by max 50%, for any six months abroad stay, with the exception of the scholarship "Funds for the Support of Youth", whose surcharge is for 12 months abroad stay, or set by specific agreements. In any case, the period of stay abroad cannot be longer than half the duration of the PhD program. In cases of incompatibility of that increase with the simultaneous use of grants supporting the international mobility, the student will have to opt for one of the possibilities. Never the different types of contributions will be provided simultaneously.

The scholarships are annual and will be renewed only whether the student has completed the research activities of the previous year in accordance with Art. 18 of the University Rules of PhD research and with the Rules of each PhD program.

Starting from the second year, each student is assured, in addition to the scholarship and within the financial resources in the budget of the subjects credited to the current legislation, a grant for the research activities in Italy and abroad, appropriate to the type of PhD program and in any case in an entity not less than 10% of the scholarship itself.

The scholarship is paid monthly. In the case in which a scholarship is not paid for delayed bureaucratic procedures, the amount of that fellowship will be combined with the following ones.

The students graduate admitted to a PhD who have previously enjoyed, even partly, of scholarship for PhD, cannot benefit from it a second time.
