

Issued by University of Basilicata

SINCE

TAGS: French Language, Cultural property, Environmental education

Does your business value this skill?

ENDORSE IT

View as learner >

French A2 for Cultural and Environmental Heritage

The French Badge A2 for Cultural and Environmental Heritage certifies the achievement of level A2 for the French language, according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

In particular, the holder of the Badge acquires linguistic and lexical skills of the French language in the field of cultural and environmental heritage that allow him to communicate easily in an international study and / or work context. Knowing and communicating in a foreign language is a key skill required for employment in EU countries. This Badge certifies these skills which are indispensable skills that should be acquired by all the students of the Degree Programs related to the fields of cultural heritage and the environment (Department of European and Mediterranean Cultures, School of Agricultural and Forestry Sciences, School of Engineering).

The CEFR A2 level French language course, lasting 75 hours, is organized by the University Language Centre (CLA) of the University of Basilicata. The CLA plays an important role in the internationalization process by organizing language courses with mother tongue teachers and exam sessions for students, teaching, research, technical and administrative staff aimed at participating in Erasmus programs and other exchange programs.

Skills

The owner of this Badge has proved to have the following skills:

- Learning a lexicon and a vocabulary that allows simple communication in different areas, including historical, artistic, archaeological, architectural, environmental, ethno-anthropological, archival, book fields.
- Be able to understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance.
- Be able to communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information.

The owner of this badge has French language skills at level A2 – Elementary or Waystage (CEFR).

The owner of this Badge has shown to have acquired the following soft skills:

- Development of autonomous interaction skills, communicating on historical, artistic, archaeological, architectural, environmental, ethno-anthropological, archival, book topics, exposing their opinions and projects.
- Ability to coordinate with other users.
- Ability to communicate in a simply way.
- Knowing how to move in situations that may arise while traveling in the country whose language is spoken.

The owner of this Badge has shown to have acquired the following knowledge:

- Homogeneous knowledge of the main grammatical structures of the French language.
- Written and oral comprehension of key points of familiar topics concerning historical, artistic, archaeological, architectural, environmental, ethno-anthropological, archival, book fields.
- Written and oral expression relating to topics concerning historical, artistic, archaeological, architectural, environmental, ethno-anthropological, archival, book fields.

At the end of the course the participants will have achieved a basic knowledge (Level A2) of the French language in the field of cultural and environmental heritage.

Criteria

The Badge is awarded following:

- admission to the French Course - A2 for Cultural and Environmental Heritage, after passing a specific placement test;
- attendance of at least 70% of the planned 75 hours;
- passing a final test.

The Badge recognizes the achievement of the A2 CEFR level for the French language.

Issued by University of Basilicata

The University of Basilicata is the leading University of the Basilicata region, in the Southern part of Italy. Since 2012, according to the new University statute and rules of procedure, ex D.R. n. 88/2012, the University of Basilicata is organized through six primary structures (precisely four departments and two schools) in which the functions and the personnel of the pre-existing twelve departments and eight faculties have been re-addressed. Degree programs range from the Humanities, to architecture, archeology, education, economics and management, as well as to the STEM disciplines (hard sciences, agriculture, engineering, computer sciences). Such degree programs are effectively connected to the research, training and third mission activities developed by the primary structures. University of Basilicata counts about 7000 students, and is based in the cities of Potenza and Matera.

Badge Numbers

-

Endorsed this badge

-

Received this badge

-

Started this badge path

-

Added to favorites

