Listening Communication Creativity

The holder of this badge has attended the course "Listening Communication Creativity" organized by the University Basilicata as part of the "Competenze trasversali in Unibas" Project.

The world we live into today is rather complex and competitive. The market is global, resources are decreasing, and the world population is exponentially increasing. Today more than ever together with the acquisition of technical expertise and specialized skills students need to be trained and supported in dealing with more fundamental questions. This programme is meant to enable the participants to investigate their personal skills, the quality of their behaviour and their cognitive processes. Also, at a broader level it aims to combine theory with project based initiatives, self awareness exercises, leadership development and relationship skills. This course aims at the development of critical, independent and creative thinking.

Participants are encouraged to investigate their personal skills, the quality of their behaviour and their cognitive processes. Also, at a broader level this course aims to combine theory with project based initiatives, self awareness exercises, leadership development and relationship skills.

Issued by University of Basilicata

The University of Basilicata is the leading University of the Basilicata region, in the Southern part of Italy. Since 2012, according to the new University statute and rules of procedure, ex D.R. n. 88/2012, the University of Basilicata is organized through six primary structures (precisely four departments and two schools) in which the functions and the personnel of the pre-existing twelve departments and eight faculties have been re-addressed. Degree programs range from the Humanities, to architecture, archeology, education, economics and management, as well as to the STEM disciplines (hard sciences, agriculture, engineering, computer sciences). Such degree programs are effectively connected to the research, training and third mission activities developed by the primary structures. University of Basilicata counts about 7.000 students, and is based in the cities of Potenza and Matera.
